Sarah Smith Campbell, nurse's aide

SELINGROVE, Pa. — Sarah Smith Campbell, 87, formerly of Bangor, died Sunday, Nov. 20, at Penn Lutheran Village, Selinsgrove, Snyder County, Pa., where she was a guest for four years.

She was last employed by Doctor's Convalescent Center, Selinsgrove, where she was a nurse's aide for 10 years and did private duty for six years. Prior to that, she was employed by the Blind Association Subscription Office, Sunbury, Pa. For five years she served as the secretary for St. John's Lutheran Church, Northumberland, Pa. She was also employed as a dental assistant by Dr. Gold in Bangor for five years. She served as a parish worker for St. John's Lutheran Church, Allentown.

Born April 18, 1907, in Bangor, she was a daughter of the late Warren S.

and Sybilla C. Steinmetz Smith.

She was a graduate of Bangor High School and she attended Baltimore Lutheran Deaconess Mother House from 1929 to 1930.

She was a member of Zion Lutheran Church, Sunbury, and its Lutheran Church Women, and was also a member of Trinity Evangelical Lutheran Church, Bangor.

Her husband, William Ray Campbell, died March 24, 1965.

She is survived by several nieces and nephews.

Graveside funeral services will be held at 1 p.m. Saturday in St. John's Cemetery, Bangor.

The Hough Home for Funerals Inc., 207 Market St., Bangor, is in charge of the arrangements.
